

Aircraft Maintenance Engineer at Dhana

Chimes Aviation Academy

Exp - 0-1years

₹ Not Disclosed

Job description

Carrying out the inspection and certification of work pertaining to the maintenance of airframe, power plant systems and components within the scope of your license/authorization Ensuring that all maintenance work is carried out in accordance with the requirements/recommendations of manufacturers and DGCA.

Ensuring that only approved methods, tooling, procedures and materials are used in carrying out the said work.

Making sure that all work orders and inspection schedules are properly completed & certified before issuing a CRS.

Ensuring that snags that are observed during inspections and those reported by the flight crew during the flight are rectified in an approved method, and especially major defects and rectifications are promptly reported and dealt with.

Making sure that all tools and equipment used during maintenance are calibrated and in serviceable condition, and are not mishandled Seeing to it that only approved materials and parts are used, and the approved spares have their necessary documentation and certifications in place prior to installation on the aircraft.

Ensuring implementation of Safety Policy and safety management system within CAPL engineering.

Driving awareness of safety responsibilities and accountabilities as laid down in the Chimes Aviation Academy - SMS Manual Duly reporting all defects to the Maintenance Manager as and when observed.

Taking responsible and ownership for valid Continuation Training and currency of AME

License/Authorization.

Any Other duties as assigned by Maintenance Manager from time to time.

Supervising the work being done by the supporting staff.

Accompanying the aircraft whenever required to undertake certification work, at out stations.

Requirements Excellent manual dexterity and attention to detail.

Strong working knowledge of aviation and power tools, computers and diagnostic equipment

Flexibility

to work long hours.

Great communication and problem-solving skills.

Skills and Qualifications Must have current & valid AME Licence in Categories B1.

2 and/or B3 Preferably rated on CAPLs fleet Benefits Salary is negotiable and will be commensurate to qualification, educational background and experience

Role: Maintenance Engineer

Industry Type: Aviation

Department: Production, Manufacturing & Engineering

Employment Type: Full Time, Permanent

Role Category: Operations, Maintenance & Support

Education

UG: Any Graduate

PG: Any Postgraduate

Key Skills

Training

CAPL

SMS

Safety management system

Inspection

Aircraft maintenance

Power tools

Diagnostics

Aviation

Supervision